LYRICS

It's time to celebrate, Feel the music resonate
Raise our voices up in joyful song
We dance, we write, we play
New ideas every day
Join our party here we all belong
A mirror, a river, reflects and it flows
A bridge and a flower, connects and it grows

I am music, it lives inside me
My beating heart the rhythm to guide me
I am music, it lives beside me
A soundtrack through time we travel entwined
A soundtrack through time we travel entwined

It's time to celebrate, feel the music resonate
From the past, to the future through today
We sing, we clap, we cheer (yeah!)
Everyone is welcome here
Music says the things we cannot say
A mirror, a river, reflects and it flows
A bridge and a flower, connects and it grows

Soaring strings, flying flutes, blazing brass, rhythmic roots
Melodies that weave and spin, all the stories held within

A soundtrack through time, we travel entwined
We travel entwined
